About Host Universities

Chulalongkorn University (CU) was established in March 1917 by King Vajiravudh (Rama VI), who named it after his father, King Chulalongkorn (Rama V), the founder of modern education in Thailand. Currently, CU consists of 20 faculties, 3 colleges, 1 graduate school and 9 research institutes.

With over 100 years of education excellence, the University continues to develop and implement new strategies to become a world-class national university that generates the knowledge and innovation necessary for creative and sustainable transformation of Thai society.

King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi (KMUTT) was founded in 1960 as a research university serving as both educational and industrial park. KMUTT is the first among public universities in Thailand to receive full autonomy and own its administrative system. KMUTT currently produces qualified graduates and skilled human resource with strong quality and morality ground. The university is actively involved in research and development as well as provides quality academic services contributing to enhancement and quality of life.

Bangkok University (BU), the Creative University, founded on December 25, 1962, is one of the oldest and largest private universities in Thailand. BU has put in a great amount of substantial resources to create an inspiring and learning environment for students with creativity, entrepreneurship and innovation interests. Currently, BU offers courses in Thai programs and International programs at undergraduate and graduate levels.
